NCCN Guidelines®

NCCN Licensing and Permissions

Using the NCCN Guidelines®

• The most current NCCN Content/Guideline version must be used.
  o NCCN will not review material that references outdated content and will request an updated draft prior to initiating the review process.

• Appropriate NCCN branding/trademarking standards must be followed.

• Appropriate credit language must be added.

• Content must be consistent with the original NCCN Guidelines and cannot appear to be favoring a specific product unless this is specified in the NCCN Guidelines.
Using the NCCN Logo

• The NCCN logo cannot be used in whole or in part in any commercial materials.

Use of Third-Party Content

• Any other use of third-party content (i.e., staging tables or citation from JNCCN) requires permission from the original source.
Improper Use

Algorithms must be adapted significantly if used commercially. Screenshots cannot be utilized.
Algorithms in Promotional Materials:

Proper Use

How to appropriately adapt an algorithm or table:

- Remove NCCN logo, headers, footers, and clinical trial information.
- Add appropriate reference statement specific to adapted algorithms.
- Change font, spacing, style, coloring, etc. (content should be distinguishable from an algorithm page in the NCCN Guidelines).
Referencing Recommendations included within NCCN Guidelines

- Generic Drug Names – NCCN Guidelines always recommend the generic, and do not recommend a brand.

- NCCN Recommendation is a treatment OPTION.

- Do not use the phrase “standard of care” when referring to recommendations in the NCCN Guidelines.

- The term “certain patients” may be used if the full NCCN recommendation cannot be listed on a piece due to regulatory requirements or space limitations.

- If including both the NCCN Category of Evidence and the NCCN Category of Preference, the Category of Evidence should be first, followed by the Category of Preference.

- Caution should be used when making “only” statements regarding NCCN Guidelines.

- Stay true to how the NCCN recommendation is written and avoid subjective commentary.
  - For example, avoid “highest recommendation,” use “preferred” only when explicitly noted, and avoid oversimplification of recommendations.
NCCN and NCCN Guidelines must be referenced according to the NCCN written identity

Common Submission Issues & How to Avoid Them

Use Correct Trademarking
- Please have the correct NCCN reference statements and written identity completed for draft submission.

Follow the Process
- Please upload your materials directly to the Permissions Request Form. Please do not submit a Request Form if your draft materials are not ready yet.

Complete the Request Form Accurately and in Detail
- Please complete all fields on the Permissions Request Form.
- Please check all Guidelines being referenced, area of distribution, and how many copies/views-these are most helpful for quoting purposes.

Escalate Requests Appropriately
- If you do not receive responses within the stated timeframe, please email the contact you are working with directly on the request and cc: permissionsrequest@nccn.org.
The NCCN Clinical Practice Guidelines in Oncology (NCCN Guidelines®) RECOMMENDS

© National Comprehensive Cancer Network, Inc. 2024, All rights reserved.
Generic (brand name) is an NCCN Category 2a Preferred option for patients with renal cancer.

The NCCN Clinical Practice Guidelines in Oncology (NCCN Guidelines®) recommend...

Generic drug (brand name) is a recommended by The National Comprehensive Cancer Network® (NCCN®) as an NCCN Category 2a option.

Generic drug (brand name) is an NCCN Category 2A option.

We will allow your banner but please note that the two pieces making up your banner must stay attached in a banner format. The left piece of the banner cannot be unattached from the right piece of the banner and used as a separate entity somewhere else in your piece or as a separate entity in future materials. If the left piece were to be utilized in your materials as a separate entity, it would give off the appearance of a “seal of approval”. NCCN does not permit anything that looks like a “seal of approval”.
Proximity of NCCN Name to the Brand Name

• The NCCN name cannot be located directly next to the Brand name/logo

• The NCCN name cannot be located directly above or below the Brand name/logo

• There must be a significant amount of space between the location of the NCCN name and the Brand name/logo

• Brand logo must be removed from slides that contain NCCN content, only
Example 1: If the brand name/logo is located at the top of the material(s), the NCCN mention must be located close to the middle of the material(s) or further down the page.

Example 2: If the brand name/logo is located in the middle of the piece, the NCCN mention must be located at the bottom of the page or close to the top of the page. If NCCN is close to the top of the page, please make sure NCCN does not appear as the title of the material(s).
Use of Checkmarks in Materials

✓ Any artwork that contains checkmarks/symbols and comes across as an NCCN logo/stamp or NCCN “Seal of Approval” will not be permitted.

✓ Checkmarks located directly next to the NCCN name may denote a seal of approval and are not permitted

✓ Checkmarks located directly next to your company’s brand name/logo are not permitted

✓ Checkmarks may be utilized as bullet points in charts and diagrams, but the brand name, brand logo, or NCCN name may not be included in the diagram and/or chart.

✓ Key Takeaway: Try your best to avoid the use of any symbols or checkmarks in the materials that you submit to NCCN. This will ensure a timely review with fewer revisions. If you are using checkmarks and symbols, we will provide you with feedback if necessary.
Guideline Version Updates: Please update your materials as NCCN Guidelines update.

If you are submitting several materials using the same language, you can submit them together under one Permissions Request Form.

If timing precludes submitting together, submit a new Permissions Request Form for each draft.
  o Annotate phrases and citations in the new piece referencing formerly approved material by indicating the previous Request #.

Reply to the most recent communication emailed from NCCN to maintain the chain of communication.

Please make all changes indicated by NCCN; these are required revisions, not suggestions.

NCCN processes Requests on a first-in, first-out basis; we cannot accommodate “rushed” or “expedited” submissions.
  • Please note that we are averaging 10 business days. We ask that you work this into your timeline.

You may continue to submit your material(s) under the original email thread in which the materials were previously approved if you’re submitting minor updates to the content and you have a current Commercial Licensing agreement in place.
NCCN Permission is not needed for….

- Press Releases
- Internal Documents
- Documents referencing NCCN Content for SEC filings
- Content that is used for Annual Earnings Report meetings

Finally…
- We do not approve materials in anticipation of potential inclusion in the NCCN Guidelines. All materials submitted must reflect NCCN recommendations within the currently published NCCN Guidelines.
Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

Permission to Cite or Use NCCN Content FAQs

If you have any questions regarding permission to use NCCN Content or are interested in purchasing an annual license, please e-mail permissionrequest@nccn.org.

Requesting Permission

1. How do I access the Permissions Request Form? Please log in to NCCN.org, or create an account if you do not already have one. After logging in, go to NCCN.org/permissions if you are not automatically directed back to this page. The Permissions Request Form will appear at the bottom of the page with your contact information pre-filled into the form.

2. Do I need to include my materials when submitting the Permission Request Form? Yes. Please do not submit a request for materials review without uploading your materials to the Permissions Request Form. If we receive a request without any materials attached, we will ask that you please submit a new Permissions Request Form, and the original request will be voided.

3. I cited a version of the NCCN Guidelines that was updated after our Permission Request was approved. Do I need to submit my materials again for NCCN Review? Yes. The approved materials should be updated with the current Guidelines version number and submitted again. If the content of the materials was impacted by the Guidelines update, it should be revised to reflect the current content of the Guidelines. All changes to the previously approved materials should be explicitly called out in the updated submission.

4. If the algorithm stays the same in a specific guideline, but the guideline version updates, do we need to update our materials to reference the latest version, even if no other changes occurred?
