Conference Features
The NCCN 17th Annual Conference features an expanded focus on quality issues related to cancer care, challenges in the business of oncology, experts’ predictions about the future of cancer medicine, and updates to the NCCN Clinical Practice Guidelines in Oncology (NCCN Guidelines®).

Exhibitors at the NCCN Annual Conference have valuable opportunities to:

- Engage key opinion leaders in oncology
- Identify new business opportunities
- Connect with cancer care professionals from across the United States and the globe
- Increase visibility
- Market new programs, products, and services

Who Attends the NCCN Annual Conference?
The NCCN Annual Conference: Clinical Practice Guidelines & Quality Cancer Care™ draws oncologists from private practice, government and academic settings, oncology fellows, nurses, pharmacists, and other health care professionals from across the United States and around the globe. Conference attendees learn about the latest NCCN Guidelines®, new treatments, therapies, and trends, and their application in patient care. There will be roundtable discussions featuring leading professionals from academic, clinical, industry, and business realms of cancer care.

Sessions offer attendees from various health care disciplines the opportunity to obtain continuing education credits from:

- Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME)
- American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation (ANCC-COA)
- Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE)
- Commission for Case Manager Certification (CCMC)
- National Cancer Registrars Association (NCRA)

NCCN adheres to the ACCME, ANCC, and ACPE Standards for Commercial Support, which detail the need for accredited education to be independent of commercial exhibits, advertisements, or promotions. NCCN appreciates its exhibitors’ adherence to this policy.
Agenda highlights include*

Benefits to NCCN Exhibitors

As an integral part of the NCCN 17th Annual Conference, the exhibit hall provides a wealth of information and resources to attendees. Exhibitors in turn, receive uncommon exposure to influential oncology health care professionals.

To encourage traffic, breakfasts, lunches, and breaks will be served in the NCCN Exhibit Hall, and NCCN will also be conducting giveaway drawings for attendees.

Custom exhibits are permitted regardless of booth size. As part of the exhibit fee, each exhibitor receives:

- Carpeted exhibit hall
- Standard pipe and drape setup including a back and side curtain
- One (1) 6-foot draped table
- One (1) 7” x 44” identification sign with company name
- One (1) wastebasket
- Two (2) complimentary Annual Conference registrations
- Four (4) Exhibit Hall Only Badges (conference materials not included)
- Breakfast, lunch, and break refreshments for both exhibit days
